Six brigades respond to Kinmount blaze

The second major fire in Kinmount in two months gutted a business on the main street Tuesday night and threatened to spread throughout the downtown core. Six neighbouring fire brigades responded to a call for assistance from the Kinmount Volunteer fire department and, through their combined efforts, were able to contain the blaze to the business premises known as the Junk Shop and Serendipity. Thirteen fire fighters from Minden, as well as firemen from Norland, Fenelon Falls, Burnt River, Somerville Township Laxton, Digby, Longford Townships and Galway-Cavenish Townships fought the blaze for nearly four hours in sub-zero temperatures. The fire began around 7:30 p.m. in the living quarters of the building. The owners, Martin and Kim Lund, were able to escape unharmed after trying unsuccessfully to extinguish the fire. Since purchasing the building six months ago, the owners have carried out extensive renovations and had intended to re-open the business this weekend. For more pictures, please turn to page 11.

Minden LEAD proposal dead

Hopes that ten permanent jobs would be created at a family resource centre and multi-unit retail outlet in Minden have been dashed with the announcement that funding for the building has been turned down by the federal government.

Construction of the building, which was to have been situated on vacant municipal land on the main street, was proposed under the Local Employment Assistance Development (LEAD) program. The proposal prepared by the municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden, was accepted by the Haliburton County board of directors of LEAD in June, 1985 and submitted to the Canada Employment and Immigration Commission (CEIC) in September.

The "infrastructure" project was approved throughout four internal reviews conducted by the Regional Assessment Committee, but was finally rejected during an external CEIC review.

In a letter to Andy Campbell, the LEAD

Booth named fire chief

After serving the community for 34 years as a member of the Minden Volunteer Fire Department, William 'Deac' Jackson has resigned as Fire Chief. Jackson was named to head the department in 1976 after serving as deputy chief and has served in that position for the past decade.

Don Booth, a 22 year veteran of the department has been chosen as the new chief. Booth has served as the deputy chief since 1979.

Bob Wells, who has been a member of the department for eleven years and has served as a captain for six years, has taken over the position of deputy chief.

In accepting his appointment as chief at the regular meeting of Anson, Hindon

County MD's concerned over interference by Government in billing controversy

While it appears that doctors in Haliburton County do not extra-bill, members of the medical fraternity are still worried about the government's intention to legislate an end to the practice. The doctors appear to be most concerned about their loss of free choice which would result from the legislation. Some have suggested that a parallel system of private health care, with patients paying for the entire medical bill could be considered an alternative.

Times reporter Michael Shirley talked with four doctors in the local medical community to find out their feelings on the controversy.

Doctor Steven Baxter of Haliburton told The Times he does not extra-bill and has no intention of doing so, but he said he is very much against the law the provincial government is passing, not because of the issue of extra-billing, but because of the important issue of professional freedom. Noting that less than ten percent of family doctors extra-bill, he said, "For the majority of doctors, extra billing is not the issue. It is what happens after it is banned that is important. In every other province as soon as it is banned, the government steps in and limits you in other ways too, because they have control of your income."

At present, doctors are independent professionals who bill the government for their services, he said, but he feels this will change if extra billing is banned.

Critics of extra billing have suggested doctors should be willing to work under a fee schedule established by the government since the government heavily subsidizes their education. Doctor Baxter said that while he can understand the argument, "Nobody would go to medical school if they had to pay for all of it, because it is just too expensive. The point is, if you want a good medical education system, the government has to fund it."

He pointed out, it has also been suggested that if the government pays for doctor's education, "it should be able to dictate where you go for two years after you begin your practice. But if they do that, it should be extended to every profession, not just doctors."

A misnomer

Doctor Casey Abrahamse of Haliburton describes the term "extra billing" as a misnomer. "It should really be termed balanced billing, because in effect, the doctors in Ontario have taken a 30% cut in pay in the last ten years, so that our fee schedule is 70% of what it should be." He added it is the opinion of the Ontario Medical Association (OMA) that the government has not lived up to its commitments in terms of the fee schedule.

"They have show they can't be trusted. They have reversed and broken contracts," he said. As an example, he pointed out, in 1985 the government reduced a 5% increase in fees to 3%, even though the contract with the doctors had already been signed. He added that while the OMA had a fairly amicable relationship with the former Conservative government, the Liberal-NDP Coalition is much more adversarial.

Parkers pose problems

Concerned that vehicles parked on municipal roads interfere with snow removal and pose a hazard to motorists and operators of snow machines, Lutterworth council has decided to strongly enforce the no parking bylaw.

Snow plough crews have been instructed to notify the Ontario Provincial Police of cars that block portions of municipal roadways to have the vehicles be towed away. Council decided on the action at their regular meeting on Thursday after reports of the continuing problem of illegally parked cars.

Not only do the vehicles pose a danger on the winding, hilly roads, the snow cones left as the plough drives around the vehicles also creates a danger for snowmobilers. Road crews have often had to return to the area during the week to complete the ploughing.

In some cases, cars have been parked at turnarounds at the end of the road within a short distance of parking lots that are maintained by the municipality.

For the past four years, the township has included information on the parking bylaw with the tax assessments that are sent out to ratepayers. As well, resolutions pertaining to the parking regulation have been included in minutes of council meetings that have been mailed to area cottagers' associations.

Most seasonal residents have complied with the bylaw in the past, and in some instances have notified the OPP of vehicles that were a hazard to motorists.

The owners of improperly parked cars tend to be weekend guests at area cottages or visitors to the Highlands who are ice fishing or snowmobiling.

In commenting on council's resolution, Reeve Bill Valentine pointed out, "This is nothing new. The bylaw has been on the books for years. We have just decided to enforce it properly."

He pointed out if motorists want to park their cars near lakes, there are quite a number of private snow plough operators who will clear parking spaces at very little expense.

planning co-ordinator, the commission stated the proposal was rejected, "Due to the emphasis placed on the family resource.daycare centre and the high cost per job created."

The $200,000 building was to have become the home of the County of Haliburton Association for Child Enrichment (CHACE Place) and several retail outlets.

The commission pointed out the funding for day care facilities is the responsibility of the provincial government.

In addition, under guidelines established in November, wholesale and retail outlets do not qualify for funding, instead emphasis is placed on industrial manufacturing.

Commercial malls were acceptable when the proposal was first submitted.

Given the criteria outlined by the commission, a proposal submitted by the municipality of Dysart et al stands a better chance of being accepted. The submission calls for the construction of a 12,000 foot square building in the municipal industrial park that will house four businesses. If the $250,000 project is approved, it is expected 19 permanent jobs will be created.

However, the LEAD program is being replaced with a Community Futures program which is similar to the LEAD program but there is some uncertainty over which areas will be considered for funding.

and Minden council last evening. Booth said he appreciated the opportunity to implement some of the changes the members of the department have discussed over the past year.

Noting it is imperative the department set out in a new direction, Booth said steps have already been taken and promised to keep council informed through regular reports.

A scant fifteen minutes after the new chief and deputy chief were appointed, they responded to an emergency call for assistance from the Kinmount Fire Department.

Balloon Run puts new face on winter

Most people receiving an invitation to a Balloon Run would probably be at a bit of a loss as to what is being proposed. Well, the Scenic Highway 35 Association, a group of businesses located on or adjacent to Highway 35 north of Minden, hope to clear up that confusion and give participants an opportunity to discover a new way to enjoy winter in this part of Ontario.

The Balloon Run, which is slated for March 8, is divided into three sections. Organizers expect that most individuals will attempt one part of the run.

The object of the contest is, once having registered at a specified point, to visit as many checkpoints as possible before the end of regulation time. At each checkpoint, the participant will receive a helium-filled balloon. Inside that balloon will be a message which may be redeemable for a prize. The participant must attempt to collect as many balloons as possible and cannot claim any of the prizes until he has announced his intention to quit the course. This can only take place at a checkpoint and it is at that time the balloon can be broken and the prizes determined.

As the participants travel from checkpoint to checkpoint, they run the risk of losing a balloon or possibly having them broken in transit. Like the players on the television game shows, the Balloon Run participants will constantly be faced with the option of risking what they have already acquired by pressing on, or cashing in their winnings at a checkpoint.

As mentioned earlier, the balloon run will be divided into three sections. Participants will be able to accumulate balloons by travelling by snowmobile, cross-country skis or by snowshoes or on foot. Each section will have its own special course, checkpoints (a list will be given to each participant at registration) and registration points.

To participate in any of the three balloon runs, participants will have to pay a $10 registration fee. Money raised through the fee will be split evenly among five groups. The Dorset Snowmobile Club, the HCSA, and the Frost Centre will share $6 for trail development, while the Lions Club in Dorset will received $2 in support of its dialysis camp and $2 will go to the Minden Lions Club for charitable purposes. Both groups will be assisting in the organization of the events.

Registration for the snowmobile portion of the event will take place from 9 to 11 a.m. at Prentice-Berry Ltd., Clansman Motel and Hollow Valley in Dorset. Registration for cross-country skiing will take place at the Frost Centre between 12 and 1 p.m. while the hiking and snowshoeing participants will be able to register at Wedgewood Marina and the Old Mill Resort between noon and 1 p.m.

The organizers estimate there will be some $2000 worth of prizes hidden in the balloons.

The day of outdoor fun will be topped off by a dance at the Stanhope Community Centre, Saturday evening.

For more information on the balloon run, participants are asked to contact the Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce, Tower Hill Marina in Dorset, Prentice-Berry Ltd., in Minden, Hart Lodge, Clansman Motel, both north of Minden on Highway 35, Four Seasons store in Carnarvon, Huggy Bear's Rstaurant at Ox Narrows, or Northshore Lawn and Garden Equipment in Stanhope Township.

An unkind cut

The rejection of the community's LEAD proposal, though not unexpected over the past few weeks, represents a setback for a major development in Minden core. The new building would have injected new life into downtown redevelopment and, we feel, could have been a catalyst for further upgrading and refurbishing.

Over the past few years, the community's core has slowly improved. New sidewalks, new faces on old buildings, a new sense of vitality among area merchants and their business organization helped spur pride in the downtown area. There are plans in the wings to carry on with additional upgrading and changes. The LEAD building certainly would have provided a major boost for those efforts.

The cancellation of the project is a particularly bitter pill to take, because, until late last year, there was no indication that commercial projects with a social service component (CHACE Place) were unacceptable. The local planning committee appeared to be receiving positive feedback for its efforts.

The setback will hurt the momentum built up in the community over the past few years, but it will not stop it. The Business Improvement Area, in conjunction with individual merchants and the municipality has proven to be a positive force in downtown development. We do not expect this to change even though LEAD has said "No" to Minden's downtown.

Editor:

After reading the piece in last week's paper concerning the residents on North Water Street objecting to the ATV track, I thought it was time someone else spoke out.

Up until this year, I lived just as close or maybe closer to the track as those people in North Water street. I was never bothered with any noise or dust. The races bring a lot of tourists into the area, something that this community needs, not only in summer, but also winter.

I can't see where this sport causes any more noise than the fairs, carnivals, dances, dog races or anything else that brings people to our town. People say that this is park land, well, parks are for the young people in town. We have at least two young men in this town who have made quite a name for themselves by using the track to race, which they consider a form of recreation for themselves.

The HCSA raised $3500 last year to help fix the other trails, such as snowmobile trails. There must be at least one person on the street who owns a snowmobile and would use the trails at some time.

I think that they have a lot of nerve wanting to know why they were not notified as to when and where the track was being made. They do not own that piece of land. There is not much recreation in this town for the younger people and I think that some of the others could maybe try to put up with a few inconveniences in life to help the younger ones.

There are a lot of people who do not drive a vehicle and can walk to see the races.

If everything that caused a little bit of dust or noise in the town was moved, there would not be much in town anymore.

Environmental protection

- by John Eakins, MPP -

If you live near a factory or anywhere where chemicals may be used or stored in Victoria-Haliburton, you should know about potential hazards in the workplace and in your neighbourhood.

Accordingly, my colleague, the Minister of Labour, the Honourable Bill Wrye, recently introduced legislation designed to provide Ontario's workers and communities with more comprehensive and specific rights-to-know about these potential hazards. Mr. Wrye told members of the Legislature that each person in this province should be able to return to his or her home, unharmed by the environment in which they work. "We hope to raise in the community and in the workplace, the profile of occupational health and safety, to heighten public awareness and thus expand public involvement," he said.

The Legislation, which will amend the Occupational Health and Safety Act, deals with physical agents, chemicals and biological agents. The main provisions of the legislation involve inventories of potential hazards, effective labelling, material safety data sheets, and instruction and training for workers. The end result will be safer workplaces, fewer accidents and healthier workers.

However, many of the residents in our riding live in rural areas where potential industrial hazards are not a direct problem. However, the concerns of our farmers are also important.

Agriculture Minister Jack Riddell together with the Minister of Municipal Affairs, Bernard Grandmaitre, have released the government's proposed Foodland Preservation Policy. The proposal is designed to strengthen protection of Ontario's agricultural lands. Mr. Riddell told his fellow MPP's that preserving our prime farmland is one of the highest priorities of the Agriculture Ministry. He went on to say that farmland is one of our most precious natural resources and must be protected for this generation and future generations.

Mr. Grandmaitre said that in order to ensure the fullest possible opportunity to comment on this policy statement, the Liberal government has asked municipalities, farm organization and interest groups for their input. These groups have received copies of the proposed policy.

If your winter rambles include old fields overgrown with goldenrod, frequently you can see downy woodpeckers of chickadees clinging to the swaying stalks of this colourful weed, chiseling at a rounded bulb on its stem. This half-inch swelling is not a natural part of the plant's form, but rather is a gall, caused by one of several species of insects adapted to this lifestyle.

Take a closer look at these galls, and cut one open. If the gall is almost perfectly round, with a small exit hole on the side, it probably belongs to a small species of fly, but if the gall is elliptical or spindle-shaped, it is the temporary haven of a "mocro" moth. Since the adult moth's mouth parts are not made for tough chewing, the caterpillar prepares a round exit hole near one end before pupating, leaving only a light stopper in place which the emerging moth can easily punch out. The birds clinging to a stem often are searching for this tiny hole to inspect the gall's interior for winter food.

Galls are not restricted to goldenrod; over 1500 species of gall insects are known in North America alone.

One of the most common is the Pine Cone gall, which looks like a cone, but is found on the tips of willow branches. These galls are caused by various species of flies and like most others, are triggered by the secretion of a chemical by the gall larvae. The protected insect can then feed on the nutritious gall tissue at leisure. The insect you find in a gall may not be its rightful owner, however Gall larvae are often preyed upon and replaced by wasp

Student employment programs

- by Bill Scott, MP -

A few weeks ago in this column, I outlined the federal government's student job creation program for this summer, Challenge '86.

The largest number of jobs will be created by the Summer Employment-Experience Development (SEED) Program. This program provides wage subsidies to stimulate employers from all sectors to create jobs for students that would not otherwise be available.

SEED projects can create two types of positions. They may create new career-related jobs to assist students in their field of study and future career or they may create new practical work experience jobs which will prepare them for their future participation in the labour force and enhance their chances of getting a job.

Project sponsors must make out separate applications for career-related and work experience funding. The application deadline for sponsors is March 8, 1986. All applications from sponsors in Victoria-Haliburton must be submitted to the Employment Development Branch Office in Peterborough at 130 Hunter St. W., K9H 2K8 on or before March 8.

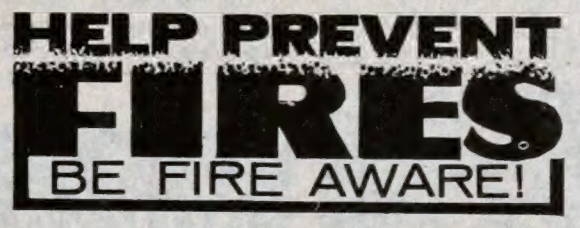
The jobs created can take place between April 28, 1986 and September 5, 1986. Normally they will run for a minimum of 6 up to a maximum of 18 consecutive weeks.

If you would like to hire a student for the summer, contact your nearest Canada Employment Centre or call the Employment Development Branch in Peterborough at (705)743-7856. If you are a full-time student who plans to continue your studies in the fall and are legally entitled to work in Canada, you should register at your local Canada Employment Centre as soon as possible.

Income tax clinic

Free public income tax clinics will be held by Revenue Canada in Lindsay on March 4 and 5 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Kent Place Mall. In Haliburton, similar clinics will be held on March 12 and 13 in the Dysart Municipal Office from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and in Bancroft at the Royal Canadian Legion from 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on March 11.

I urge anyone who anticipates a problem in filling out their tax return to drop in to one of these free sessions.



Doctors watching province closely

"Under the previous government, a lot of confrontation was avoided" he commented, "And I believe the question of balanced billing could have been resolved, but this government seems to think they can stomp on a professional group that has a lot of pride."

"If extra billing is banned, it will be in a sense, like being conscripted into the civil service without receiving any benefits." Doctor Abrahamse emphasised that while doctors "Don't want to see their patients hurt, they don't want to see their independence threatened either."

Although many specialists extra bill, Doctor Abrahamse said his patients have not had to worry about paying extra. "We can always find specialists who will see patients without charging extra, and in the cases of doctors who we knew extra billed, we have spoken to them and in every case, they said they would see the patients at regular OHIP rates."

Referring to the transfer payments to the province that are being withheld by the federal government because extra billing is allowed, Doctor Abrahamse said the approximately 50 million dollars per year, "Is a drop in the bucket when you consider the billions of dollars spent in Ontario each year."

He noted the OMA has offered to forfeit an equal amount through a special levy that could be put back into the system.

There are concerns that the public is being deprived of the best possible medical care because of the present government control of the system.

Doctor Abrahamse believes, "It would help the system enormously if we had a parallel private medical health care system," similar to those in operation in Britain and Australia. "In those systems, those who want the best care or faster service are given an opportunity to do so, as long as the general public is not being shortchanged." "At present, we are all recipients of an equally mediocre system. Everyone is being served, but we are depriving citizens of the best medical care." Without an optional system, "We would be the only democratic country in the world where doctors are totally conscripted into the system."

Private system

Doctor Antony Holliday-Rhodes of Minden also supported the concept of a private health care system. "If people want to pay extra, there should be private hospitals and doctors where people can go." "Such a system might be the best solution to the present conflict," he said.

Doctor Holliday-Rhodes said, "I am totally opposed to extra billing." He sees a conflict between doctors who don't extra bill and a minority of doctors who do. "The OMA is fighting the wrong battle in the wrong way. They should negotiate and should trust the government to have an independent arbitrator to settle negotiations in the future and there should be binding arbitration."

He agrees that there has been a decline in doctor's incomes at a time when costs are rising, but feels doctors "are doing reasonably well." "If doctors were not being paid well enough, I would agree that we should band together and get public support," he added.

If extra billing is banned, seniors will benefit considerably, he said, noting, "There have been cases of real and genuine hardship where pensioners have been asked to pay extra."

He commented that while most doctors support the system, he is concerned they are getting a lot of "bad press" because of the actions of a small number of dissenters. The NDP and Liberals are on solid ground in deciding to ban extra billing, he said, because the public supports them and is strongly opposed to extra billing.

Doctor Jeffrey Lodenquai of Minden agreed that one of the basic arguments against the proposed ban on extra billing is that it is not a financial problem, but a n instance of the government taking away certain freedoms.

If implemented, he does not foresee an exodus of doctors to the United States as has been suggested.

As for the controversy being waged on the front page of the major daily newspapers, Doctor Lodenquai commented, "Within a small community, we deal with our patients o n a very personal basis, so you won't see any of these high profile protests. No matter what fires are raging anywhere, life goes on quietly for us."

Looking for our double

-by Gary Kenney-

Now that we've come of age, I hope you don't mind, I think it's time we had a meaningful relationship. I mean, if the Queen's Parking lot figures we've finally outgrown the pimples and braces of provisional status, well let's mingle with the other 25 counties and get to know one of them a little better.

Victoria might become a little jealous, but great Scott (MP), she's been our chaperone for an awfully long time. We need to meet a few fresh faces. So don't you worry Vicky, we can still be great friends, eh? Heck, we're addicted to your old man Lindsay's plazas and Mcburger joints; it's not as though we won't be around a lot.

First, I thought about Muskoka, but that lady is verrry uptown material. No lie, she spends more on her hired help in one year than we make in taxes in four.

To tell the truth, what with Charley and Di being all the rage, I sort of had my eye on royalty, but the down to earth kind. Prince Edward County maybe?

I looked us both up in Ontario's municipal who's-who for 1983 (the most recent one available) to make sure we wouldn't be getting in over our head. I shouldn't have worried. Eddie might be royalty, but he's forced to make just as plucky a go of things as us. If we're not dead last in a provincial category, it's only because he beats us out by a nose hair.

The good Prince has ten municipalities surrounding the town of Picton, just the same number as here at home, although his permanent residents double ours (22,000 to 11,000). But we've got him beat if cottagers are thrown in (that brings us up to around 35,000 compared to Eddie's 27,000). We only see our seasonal friends for about half a year so I guess in the long run, we're about equal in population effects.

We both break down into pretty well the same age groups (within a couple of percentage points) although ours are spread over four times the area (Eddie's on a 250,000 acre island hard by your Belleville.) Trivia note: the Highlands has the sole distinction of a word rather than a number under the column: Population Per Acre. The word?...."Negligible". Ughhh!

When it comes to beating the Jones we edge out only the Prince. Our property values were listed at $725 millions while Eddie's stood at $500 millions. And Lady Muskoka, you enquire? Try a tad over $2 billions, not including, of course, those last minute millions in Tory freebies to Deerhurst. (Catty Gary, very catty.)

Eddie and we both collected just over $3 millions in taxes from our ratepayers, nothing to be sneezed at, but not even noticeable alongside Essex County's $107 millions. And the two of us didn't do too badly for provincial assistance either. The Prince got a little over four and a half millions (not including education support), while we got a couple hundred thousand more than that.

It's a similar bill to run our government offices too. We spend one and a half millions for red tape, a couple hundred thousands more than our buddy. Road maintenance construction cost each Highland household about $113 in 1983, and Eddie's families forked out around $150 each. Health and Social Services are within pennies of each other at $2 and a quarter millions.

Whereas we both spent about $10 millions for all municipal budgets combined, Prince Edward had to include loan payments of $500,000 compared to our $150,000. But that's because Eddie had long term debts of $3 millions and we're on more of a pay-as-you-go plan with less than a quarter of his debt load. Our savings accounts (Municipal Reserves) were $3 millions, that's double Eddie's nest egg.

Talking to their Chamber of Commerce was interesting. They have around 130 members and budget less than $20,000 annually. The County kicks in nary a peso but does fund an economic development commission begun in 1985.

Eddie's schools hold about 50% more students than ours (3400) and cost the same percentage more too ($13.5 millions). Nearly two-thirds of his taxes are consumed by that system, just like ours.

And what's the burning issue down there? According to the Picton Gazette, Prince Edward relies on a traditional economy of commercial fishing and canning that is quickly disappearing as the resources are depleted. Toruism has emerged as the only bright spot for the future, but it's very seasonal. Their unemployment goes from less than 10% in the summer to more than 20% in the winter.

Egad, we've found a twin.

Haliburton home earns accreditation certificate

The Haliburton Extendicare nursing home has earned three year accredited status - the highest category of accreditation granted to an active treatment or long-term care facility by the Canadian Council on Hospital Accreditation (CCHA).

"The Council is a voluntary organization made up of members of the Canadian medical, hospital, long-term care and nurses' associations," says Sheila Elston, administrator of Extendicare/Haliburton. "The purpose of the CCHA accreditation program is to promote a high quality of care and to establish standards for hospitals and long-term care facilities."

The three-year accreditation award is reserved for those centres which have been found to be meeting or surpassing all standards and to be operating in what is termed a "consistent, progressive manner."

The Haliburton nursing home was surveyed by a representative of the CCHA who examined the organizational structure, environmental services and resident care program.

"In the accreditation process, special emphasis is placed on resident care, activity programs and safety," says Elston. "The CCHA representative looked carefully at everything which affects the delivery of care to our residents and at all services that contribute to the quality of each resident's lifestyle."

Elston said the nursing home's ability to earn three year status has proven that the staff has a genuine regard for residents and they continually provide a home-like atmosphere.

Elstone, who has been administrator at the nursing home since it was opened by Extendicare ten years ago, says "The staff here is terrific. They deserve the credit for this award from the council."

Driver injured

It was a quiet week for members of the Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police. Officers investigated three motor vehicle accidents, two involving snowmobiles and 26 general occurrences, including two break and enters and two thefts.

Police released the details of one of the accidents during the past week. 26 year old Peter Soenderop of Willowdale was thrown from a snowmobile when it struck a bump. The man suffered a broken leg and was taken by ambulance to Haliburton Hospital.

The man was charged with failing to produce evidence of insurance.

Community Services Officer, Constable Gary Chapman noted, "The Motorized Snow Vehicles Act provides that 'No person shall drive a motorized snow vehicle unless he is insured under a motor vehicle liability policy in accordance with the Insurance Act.'

The incident was investigated by Constable Ron Buchanan.

Game planning begins

by Bruce Armstrong

This quote from Mr. Anonymous' writings certainly does not fit the Drop-In Centre volunteers or members "The only exercise some people get is from jumping to conclusions, running down their neighbours, side-stepping responsibility and pushing their luck."

Normally the centre seems quite roomy, but not on February 19 when 43 members sat down to enjoy their salad, chicken and dessert followed by the card games of their choice. Coluntary organizers, Elva Robinson, Vi Smith, Marjory Peel and Lenore Gillespie run a tight ship and as a reward, they and one or two husbands, were segregated in the kitchen area.

In the morning, at the curling rink, 10 curlers and potential curlers started the day with a session of serving and sweeping some serio-comic shots in a somewhat serene scene.

Names that stood out after lunch were Amy Wensley and Mac Trudeau in euchre and Barb Ellison and Bruce Armstrong in bridge. Sorry Bill and Bob, we don't report consolation scores in this column.

A response like this on a mild mid-winter day augers well for the Ontario Senior Games in May. Conveners of other indoor activities such as 5-pin bowling and darts, hope to arrange similar practice sessions, but Don Robinson feels it's a bit too early for golf or shuffleboard.

Minden Women's Institute

It was on the anniversary Day of the founding of Women's Institutes of Ontario at Stoney Creek on February 19 that the Minden WI had their meeting at the Library Cultural Centre. Our president Mrs. C. Lacey opened the meeting and welcomed a guest, Isabel Saunders.

After the usual business, the card report was read and 20 cards were sent since the last meeting and collection and Pennies for Friendship were taken.

From the correspondence there was some discussion about a quilt for Fenelon Falls Fair, but no decision was made.

The secretary read from the pages of the Tweedsmuir Book about the bus trips we have had. After some discussion it was planned for our bus trip to be to Black Creek Pioneer Village and Cullen Gardens, tentative date is July 22.

Mrs. D. Cox then told us some details of the rug braiding course she had taken and plans were made for some of our members for the first day of our course to be February 26 at 1 o'clock at her home.

A film, "We have no Art" was shown in conjunction with convener of the Education, Mrs. L. Lemieux.

There was a birthday cake for Beatrice Taylor and as she blew out the candle, we joined in singing "Happy Birthday."

The Roll Call had been a verse from our school days and the 20 members replied to this and brought back memories.

We enjoyed a snack and a cup of tea after the adjournment. Next meeting will be at the same place on March 19 at 2 o'clock with all ladies welcome. Winner of the Teddy Bear raffle was Baby Allore.

Copies of the Foodland Preservation Policy statement are available from the county offices of the Minstry of Agriculture and Food and the Ministry of Municipal Affairs. Interested groups and members of the public have until the end of April, 1986 to submit their comments on the policy proposal.

In another announcement Agriculture Minister Jack Riddell has formed a committee to examine the need for new measures to protect the right to farm in Ontario. The six member committee, to be chaired by Don Dunn, Director of the ministry's foodland preservation branch, will determine the cause and extent of the problems caused by non-agricultural land use in close proximity to farm operations. A new Foodland preservation policy statement and a revised Agricultural Code of Practice have recently been released by the Minister for public comment. Mr. Riddell said the advisory committee on the right to farm will have four months to complete its investigations and submit its findings and recommendations for consideration.

This proposed legislation is one which many farmers in Victoria-Haliburton have expressed an interest in and I think the committee appointed by my colleague will be helpful in promoting the concerns of our farmers.

larvae, or other insect invaders may have taken over. One study of Pine Cone Galls turned up 31 different insects besides the original maker.

For the few winter birds that specialize in galls, such a gourmet selection can prove of great survival value. The birds are efficient too - they are reported to select the largest and the highest goldenrod galls for their attentions which also are those most containing larvae. On a cold winter night, that success in finding the rich food source buried within the goldenrod stems could make the crucial difference in the ongoing struggle for survival.

3 teams lead for playoffs

Playoff fever is taking hold of hockey fans in Minden and Haliburton as three local teams continue their quest for the championship of their divisions.

The Minden Monarch Juveniles are hoping to capture the All-Ontario "DD" championship for the second year in a row. The Monarchs travel to Godfrey on Saturday, March 1, for the first game of the semi-final series. Game time is 6 p.m. The Monarchs will host Godfrey in the second game of the series on Sunday at Minden arena.

Last season, after defeating Godfrey four games to one in the semi-finals, the Monarchs went on to complete a three game sweep of the finals against Paisley and capture the Ontario championship.

Tonight (Wednesday, February 26) the Haliburton Midgets will host Lakefield in the first game in the best of five Ontario quarter finals. Game time is 7:45 p.m. at the Dysart arena. Haliburton defeated Fenelon Falls in their best of seven series to advance to the quarter finals.

Finally on Friday at 8:30 p.m. the Haliburton Huskie Bantams will host Stroud at the Dysart arena in the first game of their best of five Ontario quarter-finals.

The Bantams clinched the Ontario championship last season after an exciting 7-4 overtime victory in the final game of the championship series against Teeswater.

The team has continued their strong play throughout the season and qualified for the quarter finals after a three game sweep of their series against Beaverton that climaxed with a 5-4 win during the Haliburton Winter Carnival.

Summer events dates announced

The warm winds of summer may seem to be many months away, but already local organizations are starting to prepare their line-up of activities for July and August.

The AMICI Endowment Fund, the organization now responsible for the running of the Heineken Yard, announced this past week that the 15th annual edition of the foot race will be held Friday, August 1, the Civic Holiday weekend.

Held since 1972, The Yard has grown to become one of the major roadrace events on the provincial calendar. This year, all fees and proceeds from the race will be used to support the efforts of the AMICI Endowment Fund, a charitable organization which sponsors needy children at summer camps.

The race sponsors again this year will be Heineke n Breweries.

For more information on the 1986 edition of the Heineken Yard contact: Gord Woolley, race director, at 150 Eglinton Ave., E., No. 304, Toronto, Ontario M4P 1E8.

Also announced during the past week was a date for the annual Minden Rotary Carnival. Club officials have confirmed that the event will be held on Saturday, August 2.

Previously the carnival was a two day, mid-week activity. The organizers felt that a change in format and date was needed to revive interest in this popular event. Details of the activities planned for the one day carnival will be announced as the summer draws nearer.

Vasey's leads playoff scramble

After winning their third game of the Minden Men's Recreational League playoff series, Vasey's Real Estate is in sole possession of first place.

Vasey's defeated Hall's Insurance 13-7 in one of three games played Monday at Minden Arena.

In the first game of the evening, Home Hardware defeated the Rockcliffe Foamblowers 13-8. The 'Blowers are in second place in the playoff standings with a record of two wins and a loss. In the other game, The Times defeated Hartwick Construction 10-2.

The Times, Home, Halls and Hartwick have identical records of one win and two losses.

Rick Hartwick and Doug Rae shared the scoring honours in the first game of the evening, as Home skated to a 13-8 win over the 'Blowers. Hartwick scored a hat trick, including two unassisted markers, and added a pair of assists while Rae also contributed a hat trick including a single unassisted goal and assisted on two.

Larry Sawyer added a pair of goals and four assists. Dean Hewitt notched two markers and two assists and Royce Miller contributed two goals and two assists to complete the scoring.

Brendan Berube and Harold Cowen added single assists. Bill Dennison was between the pipes for Home.

Dave Brown was the top marksman for the 'Blowers scoring four goals and assisting on three others. Joe Giles notched a pair of markers and added four assists. Single goals were scored by Jim Todd and Rick Mansfield.

Assists went to Dave Crego with three and Dave Pettes and Merv Mintz with singles. Larry Kent was the 'Blowers net minder.

Times victory

A third period outburst by The Times resulted in a 10-2 win over Hartwick in the second game of the evening. The Times led 3-2 at the end of the second period then knocked in 7 unanswered markers in the final frame, to earn their first win of the playoffs. Sid McKeigan scored once to end the second period then added four more markers in the third to pace his team to victory. He also added two assists.

Jerry Campbell scored a hat trick and added three assists. Barry Shaw contributed a pair of goals to round out the scoring. Assists went to Fraser Rogers with four, Ted Vasey, three, Paul Walker, three, Kim Collis, one and Dave Lee, a single assist. Terry Crowe played in nets for The Times.

Leigh Bull scored a goal and added an assist in the losing effort. Greg Carpenter knocked in Hartwick's second marker. Assists went to Rick Salmon and Ken Casey. Doug Pearson guarded the net for Hartwick.

Vasey's continued their strong play in the series winning their third game in three weeks.

Vasey's led 2-0 at the end of the first period 9-4 at the end of the second frame and added four more to clinch the 13-7 win.

Brian Shaw led the way in the victory with five goals and two assists. Kim Hamilton played a strong offensive game with a hat trick and four assists. Eldon Bull contributed a pair of markers and two assists. Dave Dollo knocked in a goal and assisted on five others and Dan Reid scored once and added an assist to round out the scoring. Louie Reynolds contributed a single assist.

Ross Lindsay played a standout game in nets for Vasey's.

John Barkwell was the top pointgetter for Hall's with a pair of markers and three assists.

John McAdam and Andy Campbell scored twice and Ben Manuge notched a single marker and added two assists to complete the scoring. Dan Ellis added two assists and goalie Rob Crowe contributed a single assist.

Action resumes in the playoffs on Monday, March 3 at Minden arena. The Times takes on Home at 7 p.m. followed by the contest between Halls and the 'Blowers at 8:30 and Hartwick versus Vasey at 10 o'clock. There is no admission charge to the game.

The puck hangs suspended in mid-air as Hartwick Construction goalie Doug Pearson blocks a drive in a Minden Men's Recreational League playoff game played Monday at Minden arena. The teams fought a close checking see-saw battle through two periods before The Times pulled ahead in the final frame to clinch a 10-2 win.

RETAIL DRIFT IS COSTING YOUR COMMUNITY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS

Retail drift is the technical term researchers use when dollars generated in a smaller community are spent in a large community or nearby city.

A recent major university study says: "Small town residents who leave their communities to shop in big-city malls are committing a form of economic suicide". The study concludes the retail drift is so severe that it could be the death knell for some communities.

Shopping at home is the only way to stop retail drift. Keeping your dollars at home helps keep your community strong and economically healthy.

It's simple logic. Your hometown businesses provide the same or equivalent goods and services at the same or better prices with less travelling time and expense.

STOP RETAIL DRIFT –
SHOP AT HOME

Let's all work to make our community stronger

The Times

Visitors take bonspiel hardware home

"Excellent curling and a warm welcome", were the phrases heard most often during the weekend at the Minden Curling Club as the local facility played host to the annual men's"Rock-buster" bonspiel. Teams from throughout the area travelled to Minden to take part in the four-flight event.

Since many of the 24 participating teams came from out of town to curl, it would be expected that most of the prizes and trophies would leave the community. And that is exactly what happened. A foursome from Bradford captured the 'A' flight, a Haliburton entry took the 'B' division, while Bradford and Milton teams captured the last two sections.

Skip Ray Challis of Bradford led his team to a win over another team from Bradford to claim the weekend championship and the Frontier Motors trophy. Members of his foursome included vice Roger Jewer, second Darryl Lynch and lead Wolf Jeager. Rim Girovainis led his team to the 'A' flight runner-up position. The Bradford foursome included Jim Small, Wally Kemp and Joe Lindner.

Jim Scheffee of Haliburton skipped his team to a first place finish in the 'B' flight to capture the Prentice-Berry Ltd., trophy. Others in his rink included vice Scotty LaRue, second Bob MacNaull and lead Art Dawson. They defeated the Alliston rink of Pat Gibson for the honours. Members of that foursome included vice Al Lloyd, second George Hogg and lead Bill Upton.

The third flight, and the Gary F. Vasey Real Estate trophy, was won by another Bradford entry, the rink skipped by Gary Lamb. Backing him up were vice Gary Jamieson, second George Beattie, and lead Ken Horlings. Runner-up in the third division was the rink of Alan Turner from Barrie. Members included Pete Bojens, second Bryan Neely and lead Mike Trainer.

Leading the 'D' flight and capturing the Dollo IGA trophy, was the Ken Armstrong rink of Milton. Other members of his team included vice, George Wilson, second Ian Grant, and lead Mannie DaCosta. A Minden entry captured the runner-up spot in the 'D' division. Bob Colliver was the skip, assisted by vice Bill Dillon, second Howard Scott and lead Clark Bailey.

The popularity of the annual event is continuing to grow as visiting teams indicated by their promises to return next year. Organizers will be hard-pressed to hold the entries to the present limit of 24 teams if the enthusiasm of the curlers Sunday afternoon is any indication.

Budget aid - now available

- Ag report -

What cash crops are your planning to grow on your farm in 1986?

Most farmers are searching for the right answer to this question at this point in time. The financial returns for most cash crops grown in Ontario in 1985 were at or even below break-even cost for many farmers. With this experience fresh in their memories, farmers are more interested than ever in budgeting and sorting out break-even prices in advance as part of their crop planning.

The 1986 Crop Budgeting Aid is available now from all County Agricultural Offices and can be a valuable tool in planning what crops to grow on your farm this year. This budgeting aid has been prepared by the Crop Budget Committee of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food.

This Crop Budgeting Aid provides a simple format for estimating your expenses for growing eight different crops. These crops include alfalfa hay, barley, canola, flax, grain corn, soybeans, white beans and winter wheat. Sample costs are provided but only as a guide to illustrate a method of preparing your projections for your own farm. To project your break-even price, you enter your own farm figures in the spaces provided. The resulting estimate will assist you in choosing your cropping mixture and setting target prices and developing marketing strategies for your farm.

Get your copy of the 1986 Crop Budgeting Aid now.

Stabilization payments

Application forms are now available for beef and pork producers to apply for stabilization payments on animals sold for slaughter during the second and third quarters of 1985. These application forms are available in the county agricultural offices and if you have not already received one in the mail or picked one up, you should do so right away.

The deadline for applying for the pork stabilization payment is March 1, 1986 and the deadline for applying for the beef stabilization payment is March 31, 1986.

The stabilization payments cover beef cattle which were sold for slaughter and which would Grade A, B or C under Canadian Grading Standards. This payment does not cover beef cows, since they grade in the D categories. Similarly, it does not cover calves which weighed less than 565 lbs when sold for slaughter.

The payment for pork producers is for hogs which went to slaughter which would index 80 or over.

Beef and pork producers who wish additional information regarding details of the stabilization payment can find them in various articles in farm publications or may contact the Agricultural Office.

Apply now for Community Pasture

Application forms are now available for grazing rights on the Victoria County Community Pasture for 1986. Farmers in Victoria County who are interested in placing cattle on the pasture should obtain an application form from the Lindsay Agricultural Office right away and submit it before the deadline of Friday, February 28.

The Victoria Community Pasture Committee met recently to prepare the rules and regulations governing this pasture for this year. The committee is again looking forward to having over 1000 head of yearling steers and heifers pastured for the full pasture season. Again this year, consideration will be given to having one pasture for "early roundup" which would be scheduled just prior to fall stocker sales in the county.

This year for the first time there will be an opportunity for owners of short-keep steers weighing between 750-950 lbs to obtain grazing rights. These animals would be placed on the pasture in early May and will be removed by mid-July.

The grazing charge for this year will be 25¢ per lb of gain with a minimum charge of $50.00 per head for animals pastured for the full grazing season.

World Day of Prayer - March 7

On March 7, Church Women of Haliburton County and Canada will join with Christian women throughout the world to observe the 99th World Day of Prayer.

In hamlets and cathedrals mountain, plain and fishing communities, the sound of women's voices will be raised in prayer and song, addressing concerns which are deeply felt by the global Christian sisterhood.

Written this year by the women of Australia, the topic for the service is "Choose Life in its Fullness." This is a time when the burning issue of peace with justice is confronted with problems such as famine and hunger, racism and torture, military aggression and terrorism. The service raises social and ethical questions about current issues such as genetic engineering, unemployment and poverty, child neglect and the boredom of affluence.

The World Day of Prayer is sponsored in Canada by the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada (WICC) which represents eleven of the major denominations in Canada. WICC works in conjunction with the International World Day of Prayer Committee which is made up of representatives from 170 countries. Last year WICC distributed over 288,000 copies of the service to 3000 communities in Canada. The service was printed in English and French with special editions in large print, Japanese, Chinese and Braille.

The offerings from the services are applied to the cost of printing with the surplus being used to help carry on the work of WICC. As well, last year, grants to the amount of $13,000 were applied to women's projects in the Third World and $7,000 to women's projects in Canada and the Canadian Bible Society.

The World Day of Prayer Service will be held in this area at Hyland Crest Senior Citizens' Home, Auditorium, on Friday March 7, 1986 at 2:00 p.m.

Grace Windover and W.O. Earle

take marriage vows

On Saturday, March 2, 1946, gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated Rhodes Avenue United Church in Toronto for the wedding of Viola Grace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Windover, Minden, Ontario and Warrant Officer Arthur Harry Earle, Badger, Newfoundland. Mr. Albert Garden, brother-in-law of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a floor length dress of ivory satin and lace with long veil and matching heart-shaped headdress. She carried a cascade of red roses and baby's breath. The bride's attendants were Mrs. Albert Garden, Miss Diane McColl and Miss Alice Reeve. Mr. James Nisbett was best man and the ushers were Mr. Howard Garden and Mr. Frank Forward. The reception was held at the Windsor Arms Hotel. After their wedding trip to Lake Huron, the Haliburton Highlands and Montreal, they will live in Grand Falls, Newfoundland.

by Edna Cowan

Well folks, this has been a dark foggy week so we hope for more sun next week.

We had crafts as usual on Monday, one quilt off and another one on, the quilting frames don't get a chance to cool off. Others knitting and sewing, it's surprising the things we make in here.

Rev. George Elliott came and we had communion with our service Tuesday morning.

In the afternoon we had a real good quiz game. We didn't have anyone come in with music Tuesday night and we sure miss them.

Don Finn was in and had lunch with Angus Coulter again. He visits around and I think he may be seeing which room he likes the best.

Mrs. Lyle spent a couple of days with her daughter and son-in-law, Jean and George Hewitt. Lola Prentice wishes to express her appreciation to so many who welcomed her back from the 'flu and to say a big thank you to all the girls at the nursing station. They were great. I can second this as I spent five days down there myself with a bit of pneumonia a few weeks ago.

Thursday, the Eagle Lake ladies brought us in a nice lunch and we had a good social time with our tea and goodies.

I'm sorry to report that Doris Robertson our activities leader is sick in Lindsay hospital. We are thinking of you Doris and sure hope you will soon be better.

Friday, a day of sunshine, oh boy! We had a good game of "People, Places and Things" in the afternoon, keeps our old brains alive and able to think. Linda showed us two movies "Golden Transvaal" and "Happiness is Loving Your Teacher."

Thursday night Mrs. Elsie Stamp and Mrs. Ruth Travis came in for bingo. Thanks ladies, we enjoyed it.

Our sympathy to Fred and Bess Cox on their recent loss.

Sunday February 23, it was a real pleasant surprise to hear that Doris Robertson is home from hospital, we sure missed her.

Lily Hogg had her two sons, Taylor and Howard and their wives visit her, also Mr. and Mrs. Trueman Wright and Mrs. Lawrence Hogg. Mrs. May Wright had her daughter June and her husband from Toronto for the afternoon.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Isabella Wilson is on the sick list. The Rev. Burgess conducted the services in the chapel, taking his lesson from the text Psalm 33 which was enjoyed by all present.

Until next week.

An exhibition of hand-blown and etched glass vases and bowls plus a collection of stained glass window panels will be featured in the Waiting Room Gallery at the same time as the photographs.

Mr. and Mrs. Derry Willford are the lucky winners of the Guild's draw for an all-expense paid trip for two to Martininque.

Branch 129 news

by Gerald Irish

The weeks are speeding by and soon we will see the demise of winter and the soft greens of spring breaking out all over our beautiful hills.

Activities at your branch are continuing at a fast pace. Last Saturday, the Johnny Maughan Dart Tournament saw 13 four man teams playoff for this championship. Teams came from Cannington, Kinmount, Lindsay, Coboconk and Haliburton.

Winners of the trophy were the Haliburton team of Jack and Chris Briggs, Brian Sutcliffe and Sandra Crockett.

Doubles winner was a team from Bancroft. Mike Grogan from Bancroft won the singles championship. Everyone had a great time.

As usual, Reg Crockett did a great job of organizing this tournament and Irene Higgins and Olive Crockett served delicious lunches.

Work on the first ever Haliburton Bluegrass Festival is progressing well. Chairperson Mabel Brannigan has already ordered Bluegress souvenir items, such as hats, T-shirts, steins, balloons and buttons. Admission wrist bands have been ordered. We are well on our way but we still need colunteers. Please help make this event a great success.

Tickets for the Mac Wiseman and Whiskey Jacks concert are selling rapidly. This show on March 22 should be a great one. We have been issued only 300 tickets so get yours soon. Don't be disappointed. This is one show you won't want to miss. Tickets are on sale at the Legion. Get yours now.
